Research and Expertise

Over 15 years of clinical and research experience in cognitive impairment and dementia, with deep expertise in the multidisciplinary management of complex internal medicine conditions in older adults. Research interests include metabolic disorders, nutrition, and the interaction between genetic and environmental risk factors in neurodegenerative diseases.

- Broad clinical experience in the acute management of a wide range of internal medicine emergencies, including stroke, acute coronary syndromes (heart attacks), thromboembolic events, systemic autoimmune diseases, and hematological disorders such as anemia, myelodysplastic syndromes, and coagulopathies, especially in frail and polymorbid patients.

- Skilled in developing and applying risk prediction models for cognitive decline and systemic diseases, with a focus on the epidemiology, progression, and psychoemotional burden of neurodegenerative and chronic internal diseases, including late-life depression.

- Experienced in emergency and perioperative geriatric care, with strong capability in managing internal medicine presentations requiring urgent intervention and in coordinating multidisciplinary teams and social care services to ensure safe and appropriate hospital discharges.
